WOMAN'S DOINGS

GOSSIP PURE AND SIMPLE

Return of Mrs. Elkins Hailed With Delight by Hosts of Friends.

Admiral Jonett's Success as a Farmer—Clever Woman Who Left the Government to Be a Drummer.

Everybody who knows the charming wife of the Senator-elect from West Virginia is congratulating himself that for the next six years, during the winters, at least, she will reside in Washington.

Mrs. Elkins is a very beautiful and a very charming woman. She made her debut here in the first year of Gen. Grant's second term, and was the belle of that very brilliant season. Nobody's eyes were as bright, nobody's feet were as light, nobody had so much good nature.

Where he got his knowledge of bucolics from is a question. Certainly not on the quarter-deck. Whether he learned, the results are good, but the wily admiral will never confess how much it costs a bushel to raise his famous potatoes. Some skeptical friends of his, prompted, no doubt, by jealousy of the admiral's many accomplishments, and that the reputation of the admiral's smiles when these remarks reach him.

The admiral tells an amusing story of his first experience in the Navy. In those days there was no Amundsen. A midshipman was sent on board ship as a punishment, and was made out. Admiral Jonett was

A brilliant wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the Metropolitan M. E. Church, the bride being Miss Lillian M. Graves, the daughter of Mrs. Jane Charlton Graves, and the groom Dr. William S. Washington, of New York.

The church was brilliantly lighted and elaborately decorated with palms and La France and bride roses.

Prof. Dales presided at the organ, and as the music of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" filled the church the bride party entered.

First came the ushers, Mr. Frank D. Fletcher, Dr. Edward E. Morse, of Baltimore, Dr. George W. Leedy, and Mr. Benjamin S. Graves, the youngest brother of the bride. They were followed by the bridesmaids, with bouquets of lilies of the valley, diamond pins, presents from the groom, and white satin ties, the dainty handwork of the bride.

Then followed the maid of honor, Miss Katherine H. Gore, of Baltimore, beautifully gowned in white satin and tulle, with lilies of the valley.

Directly preceding the bride was the flowergirl, pretty little four-year-old Dorothy Graves, niece of the bride, who was daintily dressed in white, and carried a basket over her white satin, which contained her bride bouquet. She carried a basket of lilies of the valley.

Then came the bride, who wore one of the handsomest gowns ever seen in Washington—a magnificent conception of ivory brocade Duchesse satin, on train, with chiffon and Duchess lace and pearl passementerie trimming. The long tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms and a cascade of extraordinary beauty and richness, the gift of the groom. She carried a bunch of white orchids and lilies of the valley tied with white satin ribbons.

The best man was Hon. Edward O. Bolten, a prominent lawyer of New York, and a long-time friend of the groom. The father of the bride being absent, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert S. Todd, of Hamline M. E. Church.

After the ceremony a reception was held at No. 927 Massachusetts avenue, the residence of Mr. Edward Graves. The drawing-rooms were luxuriant in palms and flowers, and the lay window in which the newly wedded couple stood, was canopied with azulejos and asparagus vines twined in the handsome lace curtains.

The library was decorated in yellow flowers and the dining room, the decorations were all in pink, with La France roses. Dainty boxes of wedding cake were distributed.

Mr. Edgar L. Kenney has returned from his summer trip to Canada and is stopping at No. 1504 L. Northwest, for a few days.

At 8 o'clock last evening one of the most picturesque weddings of the early autumn took place at the residence of Mr. S. W. Smith, corner of Sixteenth street and Howard avenue, Mt. Pleasant.

The bride was his daughter, Miss Mabel Smith, and the groom Mr. Albert S. Chatfield, of Chicago. Rev. Mr. Fishburn, of Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church, was the officiating clergyman.

A company of about one hundred guests were in attendance upon the wedding and reception that followed.

The bride and groom left on a late train for their future home in Chicago. The going-away gown was of brown and black velvet, with hat to match.

The presents received were not only numerous, but very valuable and will go to adorn the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Chatfield in Chicago.

The feast of Our Lady of Mercy was celebrated Tuesday night at the home of the Sisters of Mercy, No. 252 North Capitol street.

The large parlors were thrown open and the friends of the sisters gathered in goodly numbers to listen to the excellent programme that had been prepared for the occasion.

Mrs. Virginia Elliott opened the exercises with a piano solo and was followed by Miss Daisy Taylor with a vocal solo; recitation, Miss Roy Lloyd; comic song, Mr. Fay; piano solo, Miss Stewart; Miss Mary Lloyd was compelled to recite several of her select pieces.

Mr. Kane was honored several times in his singing song, as was also Mr. Fay. At the conclusion of the programme the sisters handed around ice cream and cake.

Miss Clara Barton has returned from New York. She spent the summer at the Thousand Islands.

Marshall and Mrs. Albert A. Wilson have returned to Washington after having spent three weeks at the Stockton Hotel, Cape May. They have as their guests at present their daughter, Mrs. George Davis, and her two little sons. Later in the autumn Mrs. Davis will join her husband at his Western post.

The marriage of Miss Annie Harley and Mr. Joseph Kelly took place at 4:40 o'clock last evening at St. Dominic's Church. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception to a few friends and relatives of the bride and groom at Mr. Kelly's residence, Second and B streets southeast.

Learn to Say "No."

"Only one more, George; only one more," she whispered fondly as she clung about his neck, like ivy around a stump.

The man flushed scarlet and in vain attempted to put her from him.

"Please, George! Oh, as you love me, George, only one more!"

"No!" he cried hoarsely, wrenching himself from her convulsive embrace. "Remember that another of those liver pills I'll sue for a divorce—Judge."

Accident.

"Ah, woe is me," the maiden cried. "I've seven miles from town, and here I've lost the piece that keeps my knicks from slipping down."

WED IN BALTIMORE.

Marriage of Miss Berger and Dr. Benjamin M. Dorsey.

(By United Press.)

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 26.—Yesterday afternoon, at St. Timothy's Protestant Episcopal Church, Cantonville, Miss Alice Allport Berger, daughter of Mr. M. Berger, of Cantonville, and Dr. Reuben Dorsey, of Washington, a son of Judge Reuben Dorsey, of Howard county, were married by Rev. Percy F. Hall. The church was decorated with palms and flowers. Among the ushers was Dr. Howard Koonz, of Washington.

After the wedding breakfast, served at Hollidays, the bride and groom, the couple left for Washington, where they will reside.

Among those present as guests were Senator Arthur P. Gorman, of Laurel; Gen. and Mrs. William F. Craythill, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ward of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Addison, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dorsey, of Washington.

DIED TOGETHER.

Lover and Sweetheart Find Rest by the Baller Method.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—At daylight this morning workmen found the bodies of a young man and woman lying in a pool of blood near the eastern entrance gate to Tower Grove Park.

The bodies lay closely together, and an examination showed that the young couple had met their death by a bullet through their right temple. A note pinned to the clothing of the man said:

"Good-bye to all. She shot herself and I shot myself."

The bodies were identified as those of Della Bowman, aged 19 years, living at No. 147 South street, and Joseph Renick, aged 24 years, a pressman, living at No. 1213 South Eleventh street.

The police regard the tragedy as a case of murder and suicide, and are inclined to believe that Renick killed the girl and himself as a result of a lovers' quarrel.

Persons living in the vicinity of the tragedy heard two shots fired at 3 o'clock this morning, but as the sound of a pistol shot is so frequent in that locality, they paid no attention to it.

The young couple had been dead several hours when their bodies were discovered.

WHOLESALE STEALING.

Jewelry Store Clerks Take Hundreds of Watches and Rings.

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Three thousand dollars' worth of jewelry stolen from Otto Young & Co. by two of their employees was recovered by the police yesterday, and the culprits are now behind the bars.

For some time past a jewelry has been disappearing from the establishment of Young & Co., on State street. Suspicion pointed to Elmer J. Hanson and Arthur Coleman, clerks in the store.

A search warrant was procured and the bodies of both men were found in the property was found at both places, about the same amount being recovered at each. Nearly 100 watches and as many chains, rings and other pieces of jewelry were found.

The stealing had been done systematically from day to day, and it is not known how much of their plunder Hanson and Coleman have disposed of. Both men have been arrested.

THIRTY THOUSAND SHORT.

Confidential Bookkeeper Plays a Very Low-Down Game.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 26.—Alfred L. Avery, aged thirty-five, for three years bookkeeper and confidential man of Messrs. Gannett & Co., grain commission men, has disappeared and his balances are said to be short $30,000.

He disappeared Monday and the alleged shortage was discovered yesterday.

The police have been put on the case, and last night Dolly Wallace, a woman for whom Avery is said to have had a preference, was locked up as a first step in the detection of Avery's hiding place.

Avery is also short $17,000, which he held as secretary of a secret order.

DEATH MYSTERY CLEARED.

Santa Fe's Receiver Died of Ossification of Arteries.

Topka, Kas., Sept. 26.—It is learned that the sudden death of J. C. Wilson, receiver of the Santa Fe, at New York, last Wednesday, which mystified even his most intimate friends, was caused by ossification of the arteries.

This was discovered by an examination made by physicians while the body was on the way West for burial.

It is also learned that Mr. Wilson was informed more than two years ago by a physician, while he was in New York, that his arteries ultimately would ossify and cause death.

He Proved It.

"When I was in New York, I was told that I was going to die, and I proved it."
